- (f) in the case of a sectional title scheme, a body corporate responsible for the control, administration and management of the common property;
- (g) the municipality is unable to determine the identity of such person, any person who is entitled to the benefit of the use of such building or land or who enjoys such benefit;

“problem premises” include any-

- (a) building or land that has been abandoned or appears to have been abandoned by the owner with or without the consequence that rates or other service charges are not being paid;
- (b) building or land that is derelict in appearance, overcrowded or showing signs that it is hazardous to human health, unsightly or objectionable;
- (c) building or land that is the subject of complaints from the public including complaints in respect of criminal activity taking place in or at such building or land;
- (d) building or land that is illegally occupied;
- (e) building or land where refuse or waste material is accumulated, dumped, stored or deposited;
- (f) building partially completed, or structurally unsound and that shows signs of any of the risks contemplated in paragraphs (a) to (e); or
- (g) vacant or unoccupied land.

2. Principles and application

- (1) This bylaw is supplementary to the Act and the NBR to ensure the proper care and maintenance of buildings and premises, whether vacant or occupied and as such giving effect to the provisions of section 12 of the Act.
- (2) This bylaw does not derogate from the provisions of the Act and the NBR.
- (3) This bylaw applies to all problem premises as defined in section 1, situated within the area of jurisdiction of the municipality.
- (4) In the implementation and enforcement of this bylaw, the municipality may take into consideration the realities of the George area, the different customs, cultures, circumstances, geographical areas, kinds of premises, levels of development and conventions and the municipality may determine the areas in which the bylaw will be applicable.

3. Appointment of authorised officials

The Municipal Manager may appoint officials to implement and enforce any or specific provisions of this bylaw.

4. Delegation

The Municipal Manager may exercise all powers, duties and functions conferred upon the municipality in terms of this bylaw and may delegate all or any of such powers, duties and functions to officials of the municipality.

5. Entry by authorised officials of buildings and land

- (1) An authorised official may enter any building or land at any reasonable time with the view to -
 - (a) inspect or determine whether the building or land complies with the provisions of this bylaw; or
 - (b) serve the owner of the building or land with a compliance notice contemplated in section 7.
- (2) No person may hinder or obstruct the authorised official in the exercise of his or her powers in terms of the bylaw.
- (3) An authorised official must, when entering the building or land, on demand, produce a valid identification document issued to him or her by the municipality.

6. Declaration of problem premises

- (1) An authorised official, who has reasonable grounds to believe that a building or land falls within the definition of problem premises-
 - (a) may carry out an investigation of such building or land in order to make an informed decision on the status thereof;
 - (b) may subject to sub paragraphs (c), and (d), declare such building or land as problem premises.
 - (c) must, before such declaration, inform the owner in writing of his or her intention to do so; and
 - (d) must give the owner reasonable time to make representations.
- (2) If an owner fails to respond to or make any representation with regard to a notice of intention issued in terms of sub section (1)(c) within the stipulated period, the authorised official may proceed with the declaration of the building or land as problem premises.
- (3) The owner shall, upon a declaration in terms of sub section 1(b), have a right of appeal in terms of section 62 of the Municipal Systems Act, 2000 (Act 32 of 2000).

7. Compliance notice

- (1) Subject to the provisions of section 6(1) and (2), an authorised official may serve a written notice on the owner of any building or land which has been declared as problem premises, requiring such owner within a specified period to -
 - (a) clean, repair, renovate, repaint, alter, close, demolish or secure such building or land;
 - (b) complete a building or any structure of such building;
 - (c) enclose, secure, fence or barricade such building or land;
 - (d) instruct, at the cost of such owner, an architect or other competent person as contemplated in Part A 19 of the NBR, to investigate such building and to report to the authorised official on the nature and extent of the steps to be taken to render such building safe or to rectify the deficiency which caused the building to be declared as problem premises;
 - (e) dispose of, destroy or remove any waste, material or article accumulated, dumped, stored or deposited in or at the building or land, and which is unsightly or is likely to constitute an obstruction or nuisance; or

(f) comply with any provision of this bylaw.

(2) The municipality may, if an owner fails to comply with a notice served on him or her in terms of subsection (1), take any of the steps contemplated in sub section (1) (a) to (e), and where necessary, approach a competent court for an order authorising the municipality to take such steps or any other steps it may deem necessary, at the cost of the owner; provided that no building may be demolished by the municipality without an appropriate court order to do so.

(3) If the condition of any building is such that it poses a danger to life or property, and the authorised official has reason to believe that immediate steps are necessary to protect life or property, he or she may take any steps regarded necessary under the circumstances to prevent the danger to life or the property without serving a notice contemplated in subsection (1).

8. Recovery of cost

The municipality may, if the owner fails to pay the cost contemplated in section 7(2), or if costs have been incurred for any steps taken in terms of subsection 7(3), recover the cost in terms of the Customer Care, Credit Control, Debt Collection and Indigent Support Bylaw which includes the right of attachment and sale in execution of the building.

9. Vacation of buildings

(1) If an authorised official deems it necessary for the safety of any person, he or she may by notice in writing, order the owner of a building which has been declared as problem premises to remove, within the period specified in such notice, any person who, for whatever purpose is in such building, and to take care that no person who is not authorised by the municipality enters such building.

(2) Where an owner fails to comply with a notice in terms of section (1), the municipality may approach a competent court for an order to compel the owner to remove such person or persons or any other form of relief the court may find appropriate.

10. Other applicable bylaws

Nothing in this bylaw prevents the municipality to act in terms of any of it's bylaws relating to-

- (a) fire safety;
- (b) public nuisances;

- (c) electricity supply;
- (d) water and sanitation services;
- (e) waste management; or
- (f) land use planning management.

11. Service of a notice

(1) Any notice or other document that is served on a person in terms of this bylaw is regarded as having been duly served –

- (a) when it has been delivered to that person personally;
- (b) when it has been left at that person's place of residence or business in the Republic with a person apparently over the age of 16 years;
- (c) when it has been posted by registered or certified mail to that person's last known residential or business address in the Republic, and an acknowledgment of the posting thereof from the postal service is obtained;
- (d) if that person's address in the Republic is unknown, when it has been served on that person's agent or representative in the Republic in the manner provided by paragraphs (a), (b) or (c);
- (e) if that person's address and agent or representative in the Republic is unknown, when it has been displayed in a conspicuous place on the premises to which it relates;
- (f) in the event of a body corporate, when it has been delivered at the registered office of the business premises of the body corporate; or
- (g) when it has been delivered, at the request of that person, to his or her e-mail address.

(2) When a compliance notice as aforesaid is required to be served on a person by reason of his or her being or having been the owner or holding some other right in respect of immovable property, it shall not be necessary to name him or her, and it shall be sufficient if he or she is therein described as the owner or holder of such immovable property or other right, as the case may be.

12. Restriction of liability

No authorised official shall be liable in respect of anything done in good faith in the exercise of a power or the performance of a duty conferred or imposed in terms of this bylaw.

13. Exemption

- (1) Any person may by means of a written application, in which the reasons are given in full, apply to the municipality for exemption from any provision of this bylaw.
- (2) The municipality may –
 - (a) grant an exemption in writing and the conditions in terms of which, if any, and the period for which such exemption is granted must be stipulated therein;
 - (b) alter or cancel any condition in an exemption; provided that the municipality must give reasonable notice of such intention and give the applicant reasonable time to make representations; or
 - (c) refuse to grant an exemption in which case the applicant must be informed of the reasons for such refusal.
- (3) In order to consider an application in terms of subsection (1), the municipality may obtain the input or comments of the owners or occupants of surrounding premises.
- (4) An exemption does not take effect before the applicant has undertaken in writing to comply with all conditions imposed by the municipality under subsection (2), however, if an activity is commenced before such undertaking has been submitted to the municipality, the exemption lapses.
- (5) If any condition of an exemption is not complied with, the municipality may withdraw or cancel such exemption; provided that the municipality must give reasonable notice of such intention and give the applicant reasonable time to make representations.

14. Appeal

A person whose rights are affected by a delegated decision of the municipality in terms of delegated authority may appeal against that decision by giving written notice of the appeal and the reasons therefore in terms of section 62 of the Municipal Systems Act, (Act 32 of 2000) to the municipal manager within 21 days of the date of the notification of the decision.

15. Offences and penalties/fines

- (1) A person commits an offence if he or she -
 - (a) threatens, resists, hinders or obstructs, or uses foul, abusive or insulting language towards or at an authorised official in the exercise of his or her powers or execution of his or her duties;

- (b) falsely pretends to be an official;
 - (c) furnishes false or misleading information when requested to do so by an authorised official;
 - (d) fails to comply with a request of an authorised official; or
 - (e) fails to comply with a notice in terms of sections 7 or 9, or any condition imposed by the municipality when considering an application for exemption as contemplated in section 13(2).
- (2) Failure to comply with a notice, direction or condition referred to in this bylaw constitutes a continuing offence.
- (3) A person who contravenes any of the provisions of sub section (1) commits an offence and shall on conviction be liable to-
- (a) a fine or imprisonment, or either such fine or imprisonment or to both such fine and such imprisonment; and
 - (b) in the case of a continuing offence, to an additional fine or an additional period of imprisonment or to such additional imprisonment without the option of a fine or to both such additional fine and imprisonment for each day on which such offence is continued; and
 - (c) a further amount equal to any costs and expenses found by the court to have been incurred by the municipality as result of such contravention or failure.
- (4) Contravention penalties and fines to be read in conjunction with the Magistrate approved fines and contravention schedule.

16. Short title and commencement

This bylaw shall be known as the George Municipality: Problem Premises Bylaw and shall come into operation on the date of publication thereof in the Provincial Gazette.
